Requests for permission to reproduce or translate WHO publications - whether for sale or for noncommercial distribution - should be addressed to Publications, at the above address (fax: +41 22 791 4806, email: permissions@who.int).

The designations employed and the presentation of the material in this publication do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the World Health Organization concerning the legal status of any country, territory, city, or area or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries. Dotted lines on maps represent approximate border lines for which there may not yet be full agreement.

The mention of specific companies or of certain manufacturers' products does not imply that they are endorsed or recommended by the World Health Organization in preference to others of a similar nature that are not mentioned. Errors and omissions excepted, the names of proprietary products are distinguished by initial capital letters.

The World Health Organization does not warrant that the information contained in this publication is complete and correct and shall not be liable for any damages incurred as a result of its use.

Disclaimer: This document is a synthesis of the health needs and WHO projects listed in the Consolidated Appeals Process (CAP) 2006, the Humanitarian Action Plan for the Democratic Republic of the Congo 2006 and the UN Work Plan 2006 for the Sudan. It is not a stand-alone document and should be read in conjunction with the full Appeals (which can be found at <http://www.reliefweb.int/appeals/index.html>). Note that all health projects are carried out in close cooperation with and in support of national and local authorities, thus fulfilling the WHO aim of strengthening and supporting local health systems in crisis situations. The 2005 Health Sector donors listed for each crisis situation are limited to those that contributed through the CAP 2005 or the UN Work Plan 2005 for the Sudan.
