Number of physicians per 100 000 population (1993): 115
Number of medical schools: 150
Duration of basic medical degree course, including practical training: 3–8 years
Title of degree awarded: Bachelor of Medicine
Medical registration/licence to practise: Registration is obligatory with the health department of the local government. Graduates must undertake a 1-year internship and have working experience before receiving their final degree. Those who have graduated abroad must have their degree approved by the national education department. Foreigners may practise for short periods only with special authorization and must be registered with a medical institution in China.
Information on the granting of a licence to practise medicine in Hong Kong is available from the Medical Council of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Academy of Medicine Building, 99 Wong Chuk Hang Road, Aberdeen, Hong Kong. All medical graduates wishing to register as a medical practitioner with the Medical Council of Hong Kong (with the exception of graduates of the University of Hong Kong and the Chinese University of Hong Kong, and Hong Kong Permanent Residents holding recognized United Kingdom, Irish and Commonwealth diplomas, subject to certain conditions), are required to pass the Council's Licensing Examination and successfully complete a period of pre-registration internship training in approved hospitals or institutions.
