

SERBIA AND MONTENEGRO

Data references :

- 00975 Vila V, Ducic V. [Nutritional state of Sarajevo preschool children.] Jugoslavenska Pedijatria 1988;31:97-99.
- 01753 Ministry of Health. Federal Republic Yugoslavia 1996 multiple indicator cluster survey (MICS). Belgrade: UNICEF, 1997.
- 01813 Pavlovic M. Anthropometric parameters of preschool children in the region of North Backa (Subotica, Backa Topola). Public Health Institute, Subotica, Yugoslavia, 1998 (and additional analysis).
- 01926 Branca F, Napoletano A, Coclite D, Rossi L. The health and nutrition of the refugee population in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. Rome: National Institute of Nutrition, 1998.
- 02283 UNICEF Belgrade. Multiple indicator cluster survey II (MICS). The report for the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. Belgrade: Publikum Belgrade, 2001.

Additional references :

- 02050 Cemerlic-Zecevic E, Catibusic F, Milicic D. Nutritional influences on growth and prevalences of anaemia in children during the war in Sarajevo. European Journal of Clinical Nutrition 1995;49(Suppl.2):S43-45.
- 02327 Pavlovic M, Bijelovic S, Balac D, Kadvan A. [Evaluation of body height and body weight in relation to growth in children in the North Backa region]. Medicinski preglad 2001;54:438-45.
- 02441 Pavlovic M. Nutritional status of children in North Backa region. Public Health Institute Subotica. Subotica, Yugoslavia: Studio Bravo, 1999.
- 02631 Bozic-Krstic VS, Pavlica TM, Rakic RS. Body height and weight of children in Novi Sad. Annals of Human Biology 2004;31:356-63.