

Healthcare evolves with Alliances & Leadership

Summary

While the desire to insure the availability of medications worldwide is noble, the quality of health care should not be sacrificed. Quality of care can only be safeguarded and innovation can only be stimulated if Intellectual Property Rights are respected and protected.