

World Health Organization

GLOBAL CAMPAIGN FOR VIOLENCE PREVENTION
CAMPAGNE MONDIALE POUR LA PREVENTION DE LA VIOLENCE
VIOLENCE PREVENTION ALLIANCE / ALLIANCE POUR LA PREVENTION DE LA VIOLENCE

PROGRAMME

4th Milestones of a Global Campaign for Violence Prevention
Executive Board Room, World Health Organization Headquarters
Geneva, Switzerland
17-18 September 2009

Day One, 17 September 2009

08:00–09:00 Registration

09:00–09:15 Opening address

- Dr Ala Alwan, Assistant Director-General, Noncommunicable Diseases and Mental Health, WHO

09:15–09:30 Keynote speech

- Honourable Themba Masuku, Deputy Prime Minister, Swaziland: Swaziland's response to child sexual abuse

09:30–11:00 Keynote session I: Violence reduction – Case studies

- Mr Czeslaw Walek, Deputy Minister of Human Rights, Czech Republic
- Mr José Francisco Alves, Secretary for Social Defence, Diadema, Brazil: Homicide prevention in Diadema
- Ambassador Izben Williams, St Kitts and Nevis and Caribbean Community: Tackling youth violence and crime in the Caribbean region
- Respondent: Dr Marta Santos Pais, UN Assistant Secretary-General, Special Representative on Violence against Children, New York.

11:00–11:15 Coffee break

11:15–11:30 Boosting global violence prevention: Achievements, challenges and opportunities

- Dr Etienne Krug, Director, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO

11:30–12:45 Keynote session II: Violence reduction – Targeting determinants

- Sir Michael Marmot, Director, International Centre for Health and Society, Research Professor of Epidemiology and Public Health, University College London, UK: Social determinants, violence and health
- Professor Matthew Sanders, University of Queensland, Australia: The Triple-P programme for preventing child maltreatment: Evidence of effectiveness
- Professor Jonathan Shepherd, Vice-Dean (External), Professor of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, Cardiff University, UK: The Cardiff Model
- Respondent: Dr Elizabeth Ward, Director, Disease Prevention and Control, Ministry of Health, Jamaica

12:45–14:15 Lunch

(Day One, cont.)

Day One, 17 September 2009 (Cont.)

14:15–15:45 Group discussions: Strategies for boosting global violence prevention

1. Enhancing collaboration with criminal justice (facilitator: Mr John Carnochan QPM, Detective Chief Superintendent Strathclyde Police, Head of the Scottish Violence Reduction Unit, Strathclyde, Scotland - Executive Board Room)
2. Reducing availability and harmful use of alcohol and drugs (facilitator: Professor Mark Bellis, Liverpool John Moores University, Centre for Public Health, Liverpool, UK - M605)
3. Child maltreatment prevention (facilitator: Dr Christopher Mikton, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO - Salle B)
4. Intimate partner violence and sexual violence prevention (facilitator: Dr Claudia Garcia-Moreno, Department of Gender Women and Health, WHO - X7)

15:45–16:00 Coffee break

16:00–17:00 Strategies for boosting global violence prevention: Working groups report back

- Rapporteurs, Groups 1-4

17:00–17:30 Wrap-up of day one and notes for day two

- Dr Alexander Butchart, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO

17:30–19:00 Reception and Finger Buffet (WHO Dining area)

---

Day Two, 18 September 2009

09:00–10:30 Keynote session III: Up-and-coming violence prevention programmes

- Dr Audrius Sceponavicius, Director, Public Health Department Ministry of Health, Lithuania: Tackling youth violence
- Professor Keith Craig Househam, Director General, Western Cape Department of Health, South Africa: Violence prevention within the Western Cape Burden of Disease Reduction Project
- Dr Arturo Cervantes Trejo, Director, National Centre for Injury Prevention, Department of Health, Mexico: Mexico's national violence prevention programme
- Dr Larry Cohen, Executive Director, Prevention Institute, California, USA : Urban Networks to Increase Thriving Youth
- Mr Thomas Vollmer, Bundesamt für Sozialversicherungen, Switzerland: Switzerland's federal policy for the prevention of youth violence
- Respondent: Professor Peter Donnelly, Professor of Public Health Medicine, Bute Medical School, St Andrews University, Scotland

10:30–10:45 Coffee break

10:45–11:00 Publication launch: Violence prevention: the evidence

- Dr Christopher Mikton, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO
- Professor Mark Bellis, Liverpool John Moore's University, Centre for Public Health, UK

11:00–11:30 Accelerating international violence prevention action

1. Dr Alexander Butchart, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO
2. Discussants:
  - Dr Rodney Hammond, Director, Division for Violence Prevention, US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Atlanta, USA
  - Mr Paul Eavis, Policy Advisor on Armed Violence and Cluster Munition, Bureau for Crisis Prevention and Recovery, UNDP, Geneva
  - Mr John Carnochan QPM, Detective Chief Superintendent Strathclyde Police, Head of the Scottish Violence Reduction Unit, Strathclyde, Scotland
  - Mr Pascal Villeneuve, Associate Director Programme Partnerships, UNICEF, Geneva

(Day Two, cont.)

Day Two, 18 September 2009 (Cont.)

11:30–12:30 Group discussions: Accelerating international violence prevention action

1. Ensuring appropriately skilled human resources (facilitators: Dr David Meddings, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO and Cheryl Vince Whitman, Senior Vice President Director, Health and Human Development Division, Education Development Center, Newton, Massachusetts, USA - X7)
2. Improving policy coherence between organizations (facilitators: Dr Dinesh Sethi, Violence and Injury Prevention, WHO European Centre for Environment and Health, Rome, Italy and Professor Peter Donnelly, Professor of Public Health Medicine, Bute Medical School, St Andrews University, Scotland - Salle B)
3. Enhancing the quantity, quality and relevance of research (facilitators: Dr Christopher Mikton, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO and Dr James A. Mercy, Associate Director for Science of the Division of Violence Prevention, US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Atlanta, USA - Executive Board Room)
4. Strengthening country work (facilitators: Dr Alexander Butchart, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO, and Dr Elizabeth Ward, Director, Disease Prevention and Control, Ministry of Health, Jamaica - Salle G)
5. Strengthening global coordination and funding (facilitators: Dr Etienne Krug, Director, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO and Dr Jerry Reed, Director, Suicide Resource Prevention Center, Education Development Center, Newton, Massachusetts, USA - Indian Room)

12:30–13:30 Lunch

13:30–14:15 Accelerating international violence prevention action: Working groups report back

- Rapporteurs, Groups 1-5

14:15–15:15 Violence Prevention: Strengthening the Alliance

- Introduction, Dr Etienne Krug, Director, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, WHO
  - UNDP, Dr Peter Batchelor, Team Leader, Small Arms and Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration Unit, Bureau for Crisis Prevention and Recovery, Geneva
  - UNICEF, Mr Pascal Villeneuve, Associate Director Programme Partnerships, Geneva
  - International Centre for Prevention of Crime, Ms Valérie Sagant, Director General, Montreal, Canada
  - World Bank, Mr Alexandre Marc, Coordinator, Crime, Conflict and Violence Team, Social Development Department, Washington DC, USA

15:15–15:20: Next steps in the EURO region

- Dr Dinesh Sethi, Violence and Injury Prevention, WHO European Centre for Environment and Health, Rome, Italy

15:20–15:30: Wrap-up and closure

- Dr Ala Alwan, Assistant Director-General, Noncommunicable Diseases and Mental Health, WHO

15:30: Departure

---